

KING SAUD BIN ABDULAZIZ UNIVERSITY FOR HEALTH SCIENCES
COLLEGE OF NURSING- NURSING INTERNSHIP CURRICULUM PHASE I PATHWAY

Pre-internship	Week 0-2	Week 2-12 (First Medical or Surgical Rotation)	Week 13-24 (Second Medical Surgical Rotation)	Week 25-28 (Pediatric Rotation)	Week 29-32 (Maternity Rotation)
BLS re-certification. Complete vaccination record. Pass English proficiency test. Attend interns' professional counseling. Complete CON clearance. Complete inter-hospital transfer form if internship training to be completed in a region other than Central Region.	Attend hospital orientation , GNO, one day orientation to internship and other planned orientation activities Receive the uniform. Sign learning agreement &amp; confidentiality agreements with Nursing Services. Attend mandatory workshops: Medication safety. Pain management. Vascular access and IV fluids Blood and blood product	Attend unit orientation Complete the generic and the rotation specific competencies Attend awareness activity in relation to nursing sensitive components such as: fall prevention, hand washing &amp; infection control, medication errors &amp; restraints. Provide supervised total nursing care to 50% of the proposed patient load for a regular SNI in area of assignment. Conduct self professionally Establish self within the interdisciplinary team Develop time management skills Demonstrate good command of communication with patients, families and interdisciplinary team members. Present one in-service (cultural or clinical) Act as a charge nurse for at least 3 shifts Attend a unit meeting. Comply with the rotation attendance requirements. Achieve the placement specific learning outcomes Achieves a satisfactory end of rotation evaluation. Complete end of rotation evaluation of clinical experience.	Attend unit orientation Complete the rotation specific competencies Attend awareness activity in relation to nursing sensitive components such as: fall prevention, hand washing &amp; infection control, medication errors &amp; restraints. Provide supervised total nursing care to a full load of patients in area of assignment. Conduct self professionally Establish self within the interdisciplinary team Develop time management skills Demonstrate good command of communication with patients, families and interdisciplinary team members. Present one in-service (cultural or clinical) Act as a charge nurse for at least 3 shifts Attend a unit meeting. Comply with the rotation attendance requirements. Achieve the placement specific learning outcomes Achieves a satisfactory end of rotation evaluation. Complete end of rotation evaluation of clinical experience.	Attend unit orientation Provide supervised total nursing care to a full load of patient within your scope of practice. Complete the rotation specific competencies Conduct self professionally Establish self within the interdisciplinary team Develop time management skills Demonstrate good command of communication with patients, families and interdisciplinary team members. Present 1 in-service. Demonstrate understanding of child safety guidelines. Embrace family centered care concept. Comply with the rotation attendance requirements. Achieve the placement specific learning outcomes Achieves a satisfactory end of rotation evaluation. Complete end of rotation evaluation of clinical experience.	Attend unit orientation Rotate to antenatal, L&amp;D and postpartum. Provide supervised total nursing care to a full load of patient within your scope of practice. Complete the rotation specific competencies Conduct self professionally Establish self within the interdisciplinary team Develop time management skills Demonstrate good command of communication with patients, families and interdisciplinary team members. Present 1 in-service Comply with the rotation attendance requirements. Achieve the placement specific learning outcomes Achieves a satisfactory end of rotation evaluation. Complete end of rotation evaluation of clinical experience.
	Participate in one mock code Participate in the unit based quality &amp; safety related teams and projects. Receive continuous education and feedback on the role of the interns versus the role of RN in relation to patient education, patient discharge, preventing medication errors &amp; patient safety.
Communicate the anticipated interns' placements Nursing Services 4 months prior to the expected start date of training. Finalize distribution of interns to regions. Send the interns' name list to concerned Nursing Services.	Create clinical internship file for each intern.		Attend career counseling. Receive information on recruitment requirements within NGH. Finalize career choices. Confirm availability of targeted MSR lines Coordinate post-internship recruitment with other regions. Sign the Phase II Placement Agreement with Nursing Services.		Finalize Phase II rotation placements